N On 06-21-91 at 0900 hours, an in person line-up was conducted by the Bloomington Police Department in the McLean County Jail. Present during the line up in the viewing room were Detectives Crowe and R. Thomas, Tina Griffin of the States Attorney Office, and Dick Koritz of the Public Defenders Office. Also present during the line-up were Detectives McKinley, Bagnell, and Agent J.T.Cox of the State Police, DCI.

The witnesses waited in the lobby to the Sheriffs Department and were brought to the viewing separately by Detective R. Thomas.

The first witness to view the line-up was Gloria Jean Luna, who was previously employed at the Clark Oil, 802 E. Empire, when it was robbed on 12-26-90. Ms. Luna was escorted to the viewing room by me and introduced to Detective Crowe who advised her how the line-up procedure would be performed. Detective Crowe advised her that after each person in the line-up had stepped forward and turned around, she may ask to have anyone in the lineup step forward a second time. After the line-up was performed, Detective Crowe asked MS.Luna if she wanted anyone to step forward a second time. She stated no. We then escorted Ms. Luna outside of the interview room, along with Ms. Griffin and Mr Koritz and Detective Crowe asked her if she recognized anyone in the line-up. Ms. Luna stated no. I then escorted her to a separate room away from the other witnesses and advised her not to leave the room or speak to anyone about the line-up.

N The next witness was Carlos Luna who was taken to the viewing room and shown the same line-up. After the line-up was performed, Detective Crowe asked Carlos Luna if he wanted to view anyone a second time. He asked to look at #6 (Jamie Snow) again. After the second viewing, Carlos was escorted out the room and asked by Detective Crowe if he recognized anyone. He stated that #6 (Jamie Snow) looked like the person. Crowe asked him if he was sure and describe what made him look like the person that he seen leave the gas station. Carlos stated the shape of his face and his hair looked the same. Detective Crowe then advised him that he did not have to pick anyone just because he was shown the line-up. Carlos was then asked if he was sure or if the person he picked just looked like the person he had seen. Carlos Luna stated "I think he is the person". Carlos was then escorted to the room where his aunt, Gloria Luna was at and both were advised not to talk to each other about the line-up.

The third witness taken to the viewing room was Carlos' brother, Juan "Johnny" Luna. He was shown the same line-up and was unable to make an identification. He was then taken to the room with his brother and aunt and they were allowed to leave.

The next person taken to the viewing room was Geraldo Gueterrez who was also unable to identify anyone from the line-up.
